

TRADERS.

If we have said anything that has hurt in HONEST competition we are sorry. Our aim is to get people to weighing when they buy.

A merchant advertises a 50-lb. bag of flour for less than wholesale price and then only gives 45 lbs. It would, people should know better.

If a merchant advertises 10 lbs. Sugar for $1.00 and only gave 45 lbs. for 25¢ and only 40 lbs. for 50¢ he ought not to get angry when it is told.

We can not see "For the SAKE OF MIKE" why some of our competitors do not LOVE us. Let us give them. They will stand up and cry and CONTINUE to live. We have always paid our debts. We have never been sued for debt. We are able to pay all we owe. We do not appeal to the rich. We only ask those who appreciate buying better goods for the less money to continue to trade with us as long as we sell them right and save them money. It costs money to DELIVER goods— we save this expense.

Let those who are credit pay the debts of those who do not pay.

If we do not save you money we do not ask your trade. If you are not satisfied we will pay back your money. We have the largest cash grocery and meat trade in Tulsa. That fact enables us to buy in large quantities and as we pay cash we buy for less. If our customers stand by us we may yet be able to reduce prices. We believe now is a good time to buy sugar.

Come get our prices on the entire line. You can not judge a store by a few advertising prices.

We have the best corn-fed steers for our beef. Our prices are less than some who sell blue, tough, junk beef. Those who go to market always get the best and the lowest prices. But those who phone their wives or give same to a solicitor always get what is left and pay the highest prices. It should be a pleasure to a mother to go to market and buy for her family. She should select only the best meat and groceries and she should know that she gets the lowest price and honest weights. It pays to investigate.

"We give full weight. We do not deliver."

A plan is in foot by the manager of the Tulsa Star, W. H. Carter, to publish a large card, known as a ready reference city guide for negro churches, lodges and business firms in Tulsa. The plan is one that is much needed in this city because it is not only information to the visitors to our city, but a constant advertisement for the business and professional people herein. It will tell you where and when your local meets, your church services, names and places of negro business and professional men. A real booster for Tulsa negro goes so get in the habit and let's help boost. For advertising space etc., in this directory see the Tulsa Star "Men" now.

It is a pity that so many people are ignorant enough to feel that they are important when in truth they haven't sense to know they are creatures of misfortune.

A new moving picture concern has been formed by L. C. Anderson, the grocer, of this city, and John Morris, lately of Charminor, and the Clever building has been rented to install the new show. A stage has been erected, electric fans put in and all other necessary equipments for the business completed.

The new show will be featured every night, rain or shine, and possibly in the afternoons.

This makes two moving picture concerns operated by and for the colored people of Tulsa.
